

CONGRESS

Across

6. member of the Senate chosen to be the presiding officer in the absence of the President of the Senate
8. sets groundrules for debate in the House of Representatives
10. to distribute seats as in a legislative body
11. assign to a particular use
13. to redistribute the seats of a legislative body
14. provision added unto a bill
15. sole power of the House of Representatives to formally charge an elected official
16. a measure expressing an opinion; does not have the force of law and does not require the President's signature
17. current officeholder
18. review of the Executive Branch by the Legislative Branch

Down

1. leader of the party in power in Congress
2. to reject
3. permanent committee that bills are assigned
4. presiding officer of the House, chosen by and from the majority party
5. a proposed law
7. Constitutional clause that allows Congress to expand upon their expressed powers
9. the process of drawing electoral lines to favor one party or group
12. person represented by an elected official

UNIT 4- Ch. 10-12, CONGRESS, Ch. 10-12

<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• bicameral</li><li>• incumbent</li><li>• Speaker of the House</li><li>• Expressed powers</li><li>• bill of attainder</li><li>• ex post facto</li><li>• override</li><li>• reapportionment</li><li>• constituents</li><li>• rules committee</li><li>• implied powers</li><li>• resolution</li><li>• writ of habeas corpus</li><li>• impeachment</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• oversight</li><li>• gerrymander</li><li>• majority leader</li><li>• standing committee</li><li>• rider</li><li>• denied powers</li><li>• revenue bill</li><li>• interstate commerce</li><li>• at-large</li><li>• president pro-tempore</li><li>• veto</li><li>• necessary and proper clause</li><li>• commerce power</li><li>• committee hearing</li></ul>
---	--

